Whereas, The 59ers are not strangers to the championship, having been in the final game three time before, in 1997, 2001, and 2002;

Whereas, Those games had ended in defeat;

Whereas, The fourth trip to the championship would be different, with the team members and coaches determined to bring the trophy home to Andrean High School;

Whereas, Quarterback Tommy Finn, who set the state's single season record for passing yardage with 3,380 yards, quickly took charge of the game, passing for one touchdown and running for two more;

Whereas, Tommy Finn, the third of three Finn quarterbacks, guided the team to victory with 265 of the team's 321 total yards;

Whereas, In the first half, Tommy Finn connected with four different receivers, Ty Harangody, Jake Kocal, Juaquin Rodriquez, and Chris Skinner, for 117 yards;

Whereas, Ty Harangody, senior tight end, knows better than any other player the agony of defeat and the elation of victory; he has been to three title games, the final one ending in a championship;

Whereas, This year's victory was a total team effort, with each member of the team contributing an essential element to the team's success; and

Whereas, Through dedication, hard work, and comradery, the outstanding athletes and dedicated coaches of the Andrean High School 59ers have accomplished their long standing goal of bringing a championship trophy back to Andrean High School: Therefore,
